Who we are

We are a leading PRINTING & PUBLISHING company in the UAE for more than two decades. The UAE market is highly competitive, demanding and turbulent, which makes it tough to establish and maintain a leadership position that we have successfully managed to.

A professional approach

- > We believe that printing is a fine art and take immense pride in every job we undertake.
- > Our professional approach to printing services has gone a long way in building our impeccable reputation.
- > What sets us apart is our understanding of the business to offer tailor-made solutions to your needs.
- > We are backed by a dedicated and competent workforce having technical and practical knowledge of the sophisticated machinery.
- > Our efficient supply chain management ensures meeting of delivery deadlines resulting in high customer satisfaction scores.

Our founder

Raju Kurian

(1951 - 2003)

Stallion Printing Press was established in Sharjah by the Late Raju Kurian almost two decades ago. His hard won technical know-how and marketing techniques were honed over for more than 30 years in the printing field, in the Gulf countries.

His experience in management, marketing, sales and training brought creativity and an entrepreneurial spirit to all his business endeavours. Strong people skills helped bring and retain relationships and build a loyal base of customers.

Our CEO

Mr. Johnson T Abraham

"We are a reliable partner to our clients in the printing business. Our mission is to optimize our customer's business through world-class printing services and solutions. We ensure the success of our company by constantly and consistently meeting our customer and employee needs."

Mr. Abraham brings 20 years of experience in providing fiscal, strategic and operational leadership to Stallion. His keen analysis and insights and team approach helps in resolving multiple and complex issues while motivating staff to peak performance.

Committed to excellence

- > The production unit and office are within the same premises at Industrial Area No. 11, Near National Paints, Sharjah (Behind ADNOC Fuel Station).
- > The printing works are done by skilled and experienced technicians on latest German offset machines that ensures superior quality and quick turnaround time.
- > Our sales offices are located all over UAE catering to every customer requirement.

Our project management

We manage an entire project from start to finish always ensuring that it is executed flawlessly within budget — from initial consultation to design, production and delivery.

Our strength

We have a professional team of sales & marketing staff with solid knowledge and expertise. We consist of industry veterans and committed individuals who constantly push the limits of the business.

Socially responsible

We are committed to making a positive impact on the environment and people around us. We focus on initiatives that support sustainable practices, lessening the impact on our planet. We also support social initiatives through financial interventions and otherwise.

Planet friendly

Stallion Press is passionate about protecting our fragile environment. Wherever possible, we only buy papers from recognised paper merchants who source their products from sustainable sources. As a result, we offer a wide range of environmentally approved or recycled products. Our extensive range of digital print capabilities also helps to reduce waste. We are also committed to reviewing and improving our methods to minimise waste and reduce our carbon footprint.
